Detailed description

"Mum, dad, can we stay here?" There is a high chance that your little ones will say that, as the villa "Mofares" offers everything a child's heart desires: a climbing frame, a swing, and a large trampoline. You don't need to go looking for a playground on this holiday – you only need to go into the garden. Right from the start, these are the perfect circumstances for you too to be able to enjoy all the advantages this accommodation has to offer. Let's begin with the large terrace on the upper floor, from which you'll have a wonderful view of the centre of the picturesque little town of Calvià. With a glass of Mallorcan wine in hand, you can start exploring the area from right here: cast your eyes over the traditional ochre-coloured houses, to the two little towers of the church of Sant Joan, behind which you can see the gentle silhouette of the Tramuntana range. Welcome to your holiday! You could probably stay up here forever, were it not for the charming pergola with its chill-out sofa area right next to the saltwater pool, which looks so enticing. If you want some alone time, you can relax in the hammock, which is waiting at the end of the garden, hung between two gnarled trees. On the inside, the villa is also an eye-catcher: the entire interior can be described as cosy and modern; in each room, colourful highlights have been added using paint or accessories, to really underscore the summery feel that fills this accommodation. The delightful open-plan living area offers lots of generous space and has direct access to the covered terrace, which is also a great place to BBQ. The glass double doors let in plenty of light, and cheerfully coloured chairs await you around the round table. To the left is a cosy sofa corner with a wood-burning stove, stereo system, and TV, which means there's always a pleasant ambience and enough to do, even on days with bad weather. The fully-equipped kitchen is just behind it, and is the ideal place to start preparing for a BBQ together. And if you love a hot cup of coffee, there's a Nespresso machine waiting in here just for you. The four bedrooms are distributed throughout the upper and lower floors; two of them have en-suite bathrooms. All bedrooms have been furnished with brand-new mattresses, allowing for an even more pleasant entry into the land of dreams. The two spacious bathrooms have a bathtub, and the extra WC has a "pretty in pink" look. We now come to another highlight of this house, which is in the cellar: the sauna with its own relaxation room. If you visit the house during the cooler months you'll find your own private wellness oasis. This holiday home really leaves nothing to be desired. Those looking for peace and quiet will find it on long walks in the green countryside, and those looking for a little more action can drive the hire car to popular bathing resorts like Palmanova and Perguera and stroll along the beach promenades, which have numerous restaurants, bars, and nightclubs. Villa "Mofares" is located on the edge of town not far from the highway that connects Calvià with the authentic village of Es Capdella in the north and popular beaches such as Son Caliu and Cala Blanca in the south. Another great destination is the fancy marina Puerto Portals, only about 15 minutes away by car, probably the most famous water sports and leisure complex in Mallorca. There are also regular events like fashion shows and a farmers' market.

It was a wonderful family holiday in a wonderful house and we will be happy to come back.

The house is just great! Every comfort, clean, spacious and super situated. In particular, the pool lighting in the evening is a dream. The on-site and remote support was very good. Inquiries were answered in a few minutes and even assistance was provided with challenges. That's the best you could do!

Very chic finca in a noble little village, far away from tourism. (Nevertheless you get everything on the spot and with a few minutes by car you are not far away from the hustle and bustle.) The house itself is furnished with attention to detail, very clean and the equipment is very high quality and complete. I was very surprised by the communication with the landlord, who contacted me personally long before our arrival and was extremely eager to make our stay and everything around it as pleasant as possible! In short: It was a very relaxed holiday in a high-quality Finca with top equipment. We'll be back for sure!
