Detailed description

The villa "Can Ballester" is in a very tranquil location and will thus become your oasis of relaxation! The estate, which is generously proportioned and partly shows a romantic side, is flooded with trees, greenery, and a fantastic stone look – it is definitely easy to switch off here. The spacious outdoor area offers you diverse options to daydream and relax directly under the Mallorcan sky or also in the cooler shade. The many different flowers in their unique jars function as added eye-catchers in this welcoming atmosphere. Several deckchairs are available to you for relaxation – and in terms of cooling off, you can do so via the outdoor shower or the pool. On account of its large area, the estate provides space for the activities of several generations: while some want to relax, the others can romp around with no one feeling disturbed. Look forward to fulfilling holidays with sun, water, relaxation, fun, and action! Next to the light-blue-tiled swimming pool, the house has various tables and chairs set up outdoors which are located in small niches and thus stand out as the perfect place for family meals. Sit down in the roofed outdoor kitchen with a BBQ and enjoy the delicacies there in an intimate circle. On a side note: the blue greenhouse you see in the video is empty and no longer in use. "Come on in and feel at home!", that is what the stylish "Can Ballester" seems to call out to its guests. On entering the house, you will spot gloriously light-flooded rooms that are furnished with matching, cosy furniture which one immediately wants to settle down in. The spacious rooms are decorated in a bright colour scheme and spread out over two floors, so that a multitude of relaxation options are also on offer in the villa's interior. Each floor has a self-contained unit – perfect for several families or a family with different generations! In the cheerful chequered kitchen (matching the tile floor of the dining area!) you gather to chop up veggies together – and maybe spy a cooking trick or the other from one another. Furthermore, you find all modern technology in the interior, starting with televisions (four TV sets in the house) through DSL internet access to music and DVD systems. The stylishly furnished double rooms each have their own bathrooms in which the original tile theme exists side by side with modern style. This fabulous villa provides you with all the options you desire from a holiday location: first relax, then daydream, then go swimming or party with friends. You want to organise a party or a meeting for up to 50 persons? In this villa, all your options are wide open! In a radius of 8 km, you will find a supermarket and also a weekly market. In addition, the nearest beach is only 13 km away. You can undertake something different every day: decide between the beach, the swimming pool, a BBQ party, relaxing by the pool – or perhaps you want to just commit to reading an amazing book.

The finca was in top condition. Everything was perfect for us. Very nice and big and absolutely quiet. Everything necessary was available and the necessary work (garbage disposal) was done daily and invisibly. The contact with the administrator worked excellently and punctually and we received valuable tips. The Finca is highly recommended and we would book it again at any time.

Very nice finca. I think it's great that the waste is separated and collected very regularly. WiFi also worked perfectly. Unfortunately the grill was a bit complicated and the kitchen equipment was not complete. On-site support was great.
