Detailed description

Villa "Gaviota", near to Andratx in the west of the island, is not short of superlatives: not only have there been a mere five houses in Mallorca in total built in this incomparable style, but the snow-white luxury property, complete with curved roofs and large windows, also boast a first-class southern location as part of a well-kept housing development. High up above the beautiful Cala

Llamp, you have breathtakingly spectacular views: the deep-blue sea in the bay shimmers enticingly, surrounded by the picturesque, awe-inspiring mountains. Even the villa itself is simply a dream: the beautiful saltwater infinity pool lies at the heart of the estate adorned with lush-green lawns. There you can not only cool off magnificently, but also enjoy the aforementioned incredible views over Cala Llamp. All around the curved pool you'll find several inviting covered terrace areas with everything to get you truly excited for your holiday: highly modern, comfortable sun-loungers, a extremely inviting chill-out area with armchairs and sofas, perfect for sinking into with a cocktail in your hand. That's without mentioning the delightful long dining table, ideal for enjoying Mediterranean specialities all together that you've prepared in the outdoor kitchen whilst gazing out over the sea. It won't come as a surprise, but the entirety of Villa "Gaviota's" interior is without parallel. A unique design wherever you look! Thanks to the large glass walls and the extremely open, airy indoor architecture, each and every room is flooded with light and offers views of the Mediterranean right outside the door. The facilities are truly luxurious and match each other down to the finest detail. White as well as sand and beige colours dominate here; in the dining room on the entrance floor, you'll find an elegant glass table and comfortable upholstered chairs, just perfect for an elaborate dining experience. Meanwhile, the two large living rooms – one slightly above and one slightly below the dining room level – invite you to laze about in stylish comfort on their giant, modern and cushioned sofas, surrounded by fluffy carpets, exquisite pieces of art, designer lamps and either an atmospheric ethanol fireplace or a flat-screen TV. The ultra-modern, open-plan kitchen with integrated dining area will certainly set the hearts of any aspiring chefs racing – the high-quality, comprehensive facilities leave nothing to be desired, a magical stage for producing most elegant cuisine. Our tour continues in the spacious bedrooms, comprised of three double rooms and one quadruple room. All of them are extremely modern, but still with a cozy, homely finish to ensure you immediately feel at home and are guaranteed lovely dreams. One of the double rooms has an adjoining room with a bunk bed for children. The four bathrooms in total, two of which are en-suite, each represent heavenly little wellness centres – naturally all with an extremely modern design. The villa is part of a housing development in a quiet and beautiful area of countryside; it is perfect for taking delightful walks whilst enjoying views of the water and the salty sea air. This holiday villa is so perfect that you'll barely have to leave, though one or two trips out in your rental car are certainly worthwhile. The chic Port d'Andratx for example is only around 10 minutes' drive away. In this well-kept harbour town with a picturesque background, you'll find great places to shop, a large selection of restaurants, stylish bars and pretty cafés, as well as an exclusive yacht club. Despite all the excitement in the streets, Port d'Andratx is still a fishing harbour, hence you can still relax and watch the Mallorcan fishermen at work over a lovely cup of coffee. Those who like things a little more tranquil should head to Andratx. Surrounded by orange and olive groves, the resort is around 8 km away from Villa "Gaviota" and boasts narrow little streets, lovely shops and a colourful weekly market every Wednesday. On the other hand, Camp de Mar is perfect for a day at the beach: you only have to drive 7.8 km before going swimming and the snorkeling in the wonderful little bay, which is popular with families.
