Location of the Rural Villa in Mallorca

The fantastic villa "Can Malondra" is an elegantly restored property. It is located in the middle of the island, near Binissalem, in an extremely secluded estate. On Friday, you can visit the weekly market with regional products in the resort; visitors and locals often meet there for a chat. Due to its central location in the middle of the island, the northeastern and southern beaches, as well as the Tramuntana mountains, are all quickly within reach with a rental car.

Detailed description

The villa "Can Malondra" is built in traditional Mallorcan style, and is a fantastic property which, in many respects, is fascinating, having completely surprised us at Fincallorca. Along the park-like lay-out of the estate, with the Mediterranean garden and many enchanting details, such as the stone sculptures which are found throughout the garden, the wildlife pond, the small paths on the grassy plot, the scented bougainvilleas, the high trees with the many open-air seating spots: all of these are simply dream-like. In the middle of this vast garden you will find the large pool, along with an outdoor shower and comfortable loungers on which to relax and unwind. Next to the spaced-out garden seating spots, there is a wonderful roofed terrace fitted with lovely, hand-made wooden furniture accompanied by comfortable pillows with a blue and white flower design. The Mediterranean summer and the late evening hours entice one to come under the roofed outdoor kitchen with a built-in barbeque. Here one can find an additional dining area with a wide stone slab; awnings and a fan provide shade and the possibility to cool down. You can enjoy the evening with a relaxing barbeque: possibly with a glass of local red wine? The heart of this miniature paradise is the generously-sized property with 500 m² of living space. There is more than enough space for up to eight people in four double rooms. The house holds onto its tradition, being made of stone and with lovely blue window shutters, while the large round arch windows fill up the rooms with light, something which will make architecture enthusiasts' heart beat faster. The common living spaces surprise with their open nature. The large living room hosts huge round windows which overlook the garden, so one has the impression of a winter garden since the house is filled with light. Behind it lies the large, open dining area for up to ten people. The fully equipped kitchen has a old fireplace and an additional eating area, which reminds one of past farmhouse arrangements. Nevertheless, it is equipped with modern fittings and provides the guest with an appropriate level of comfort. Particularly noteworthy is the open gallery, which can be reached via the stairs. Here we find a second lounge with a fireplace providing a well-suited cosiness. The four bedrooms, with their respective double beds, have custom furnishings. Under a semicircular ceiling with old wooden beams and visible quarry stone brickwork, one feels right at ease. The yellow bedroom includes an antique, lovingly restored bedstead: a testimony to woodturning artisanship. The blue and the green bedrooms, in turn, offer sweet dreams under cosy sloped roofs. Both bathrooms are modern, which have local art-inspired tiles, and are fitted with bathtubs or showers. An additional outdoor bathroom, fitted with a toilet and a shower with hot water, is also available. It's worth knowing that Binissalem is the Mallorcan capital of wine. The region is known even beyond its borders. The Manto Negro is an autochthonous red grape variety, produced mainly in Mallorca, a reason to believe this is an excellent wine. As a result, this lovely location provides the opportunity to visit wine cellars which are built with Binissalem stone. The rustic cellars and the stone houses of the location make for an impressive overall picture. A large weekly market, not only a get-together for visitors, takes place on Fridays. Owing to its central position in the Plà de Mallorca, the Palma airport is approximately 20 km from Binissalem. With the rental car, you can access the marvels of the island's coastal landscape with its fantastic, partially wild beaches (for example, Serra de Marina and the Alcúdia bay). Nearness to the Tramuntana mountains is equally appealing. In this respect, the villa "Can Malondra" offers a fabulous starting point from which to explore the island and a convenient flexibility in choosing where to go. Last but not least, we would like to point out the fantastic rental price of the villa. Due to the villa's elaborate facilities, complete seclusion, central private location and large size, the price is hardly to be expected. The overall concept is simply fabulous! From Fincallorca, we wish you an equally fabulous holiday.

Can Malondra is a beautiful large finca with a great outdoor area. Enough space for the whole family. Including the outdoor area there are 3 dining areas available. The spacious kitchen is completed by a brick grill and an outdoor wood-burning oven. A huge advantage is the central location of the finca, you are in a short time almost everywhere. Sufficient shopping possibilities are also available in the proximity. The extremely quiet location was a big plus for us. The contact with the owner and the caretaker was very nice and cordial. One phone call was enough and everything would be taken care of. Thanks, Andres, we'll definitely be back.

A really beautiful house surrounded by a fantastic garden / land. We were very satisfied and would definitely book this house again. The decor is very nice and typical of the country, also with a lot of love to detail. We felt comfortable all around. The on-site support is first class, immediate solution in case of problems (the freezer broke down, it was immediately provided for replacement) and always available for questions! As I said, we would book again!

The finca is a dream. We would have loved to stay longer. We were there with 6 adults, a child and a baby and there was enough space. We were warmly welcomed and also during the vacation a contact person was always available. At 06.00 in the morning the pool and the outside area was cleaned. At the pool were enough beach chairs and cushions available. Towels, as well as bath towels were also sufficiently available. In each bedroom has air conditioning, so that sleeping at 35 degrees was easily possible. The finca is a bit out of the way. Just perfect for those seeking peace. > only now and then you can hear the train passing by the nearby station. <By car you can reach the village quickly, where there are some very good restaurants.
