Detailed description

The traditional, very beautifully restored quarry-stone villa "Es Pedregal" is a holiday home for up to 9 people in a quiet, green location, near the pretty town of Santa Maria del Cami. In the historical town, you can wonderfully purchase leather products or taste wine in the numerous bodegas. Those who rent holiday homes generally prefer self-catering, which you can excellently do here. Visit the cheerfully colourful market that takes place every Sunday or shop in one of the stores and purchase fresh, regional products. The villa offers two protected, covered dining spots where you can enjoy your prepared meals: A dining place under the awning covered with bast is located at the bottom end of the estate near the pool and barbeque; the second covered dining area lies right by the house, next to which another wonderful living landscape is set up, also with a covered awning - both basically an extended living/dining room that you can reach through the side of the facade completely made of glass in this romantic villa. The garden area is shaped by high trees and typically Mediterranean plants that also line one side of the pool and offer a nice sight protection. The pool, decorated with delicate mosaic stones and with a gentle entry via stairs, boasts a sizable 12 x 6 m. The pool is bordered by an extensive sun terrace with stones, providing sufficient loungers and parasols. The additional outdoor bathroom (the fourth bathroom) is particularly practical if you do not want to enter the house with wet bathing suits after swimming or splashing in the pool. The interior of the completely renovated villa lets us as visitors experience... the charming and rustic features of a typically Mallorcan villa. At the same time, this is paired with modern comfort, creating a wonderful mesh of tradition and modernity. The bright living space with the visible wooden beams on the ceiling is furnished with a light seating arrangement, the old fireplace generates cosiness, even in colder temperatures. The kitchen is a lovingly furnished place. In addition to the modern comforts of complete facilities with a dishwasher, microwave, coffee machine, and much more, the brick fittings with the dark wooden fronts and the beige/green tiles together with the drapes made of green and white chequered material have a particularly familiar and friendly touch. At the same time, it plays with modern layouts by merely installing a visual divide through old wooden beams that opens up the way to the dining area with a large table. The walls are completely designed with exposed brickwork - especially cosy with a reference to the history of this house. A total of 4 bedrooms are available to the guests. These consist of 3 double rooms (partly with single beds) and a 3-bed room. The furniture is rustically Mallorcan, partly using a hand-turned bedstead that resembles a canopy bed. We also very much liked the three posh bathrooms. While one has a maritime blue and white look, the second bathroom features a shower with several jets embedded into the wall. The largest bathroom is particularly great with a round jacuzzi that can be entered via little stairs. Here too, natural stone was used for the wall and floor tiles, giving you more of a feeling of a luxurious, Turkish wellness spa than a normal functional room. If you are traveling with a larger group or several families, you can find very good leisure activities such as the table tennis table or a game of darts to while away the time. You can decide how to spend your time outside of the property as you please. A day at the beach - and you drive to one of the many beaches or embark on a discovery tour of sandy beaches rarely visited by tourists that can be found on the southwestern coastal section. If you want to experience culture or urban flair, drive to Palma, the island's capital, about 25 km away. Whether you want to stroll through the chic main shopping street, wander through the old town, refresh yourself culturally, or visit the impressive yacht harbour - or all of the above -, all options are open to you. At the same time, at the authentic villa, you can enjoy the tranquillity, nature and a delicate cosiness with which the former farmhouse was renovated into a great holiday home. Finally, we should also mention the exceptionally favourable price at which we are able to offer the villa during the peak season. Even with a number of occupants lower than the maximum of 9 people, the rental price is still very advantageous. The great impression made by the fine villa "Es Pedregal" is thereby rounded off, and we at Fincallorca wish you a great time there.

The Finca Es Pedregal we found on our arrival exactly as shown in the photos of Fincallorca. The owner had even filled the fridge with delicious drinks. Location: The road to the finca is a 1 km long bumpy gravel road (a pain for any vehicle), so here is a star deduction. The location of the finca is very good. Palma, the airport and the beach at S#39;Arenal (B12) can all be reached in 20 to 25 minutes. Festival Park (outlet center) is also just a few kilometers away. There are shops for daily needs at Alcampo or Aldi which are also very easy to reach. Alcampo is open until 10pm. Cap Formentor we drove just 1 hour, but you should see that you are there before 11 clock, otherwise &quot;waiting&quot; is inevitable, &quot;as the parking is limited (driving a car out, a car in). Crockery, cutlery, as well as shower, pool and beach towels are available in sufficient quantities. Rinse machine tablets, dish soap, hand soap and toilet paper are also part of the original equipment. The washing machine works perfectly, but clothespins are a little. The grill and seating area is really very, very nice 2 large refrigerators - what more could you ask for? Juana Maria the owner is very nice and very helpful. If something is missing, the immediate remedy. The coffee maker was broken and we got a new one. The water pressure in the 3 showers is not just to be intoxicating and lush, furthermore, it will take forever for &quot;lukewarm&quot; water to come in. An outdoor shower is available Anden, but hiding in a &quot;little room&quot; (was not really appealing now). We did not see the bicycles, but did not ask for them. The WLAN is running very well (is very important today) and the TV has German programs. The rooms are of sufficient size - the whole finca is spacious. The mattresses in our room (triple room) was a bit worn, so there is a star deduction. The property is completely fenced and is closed with an electric gate. Parking is sufficiently available (we had 2 rental cars). We have friendship with Juana Maria's horse &quot;Kira&quot; closed. Do not worry, it does not smell like a stable or a horse. The dog also paid us a visit. On the property stands a wonderful fig tree, which we gladly plundered. The figs were extremely tasty. Conclusion: All in all, a really great finca. We were 6 people aged 20 - 57 years. We really enjoyed the holiday, wheather at the pool or on the beach. The barbecue area we used daily and we grilled delicious lamb and of course fish. Would be another option to book this finca. A really great holiday. For me personally, the &quot;invisible &amp; silent&quot; mosquitoes were a pain, as I am allergic to stings. Therefore, mosquito nets might not be a bad purchase. The price / performance ratio of this finca is absolutely correct - there is nothing to complain about. A deposit we did not have to deposit, which I feel in turn as a generous gesture of the landlord. Many thanks &quot;Fincallorca&quot; for the great transaction and Juana Maria for the wonderful care during our holiday. gracias

We were to 7. (2 couples and 3 friends between 19 and 27 years) as a guest. We were greeted very friendly with a small welcome gift in the fridge. The finca was very clean and the owner very accommodating. For problems and questions she was always available. The large pool with 9 beach chairs and adjacent grill and fridge was ideal for us. Only the access road is a bit bumpy. All in all, we had a wonderful and relaxing week and can only recommend the finca!
