Detailed description

One look at this unique property is sure to take your breath away. In completely secluded surroundings, surrounded by a vast area, this villa is ideally perched overlooking the local landscape, providing you with peerless views over much of the east of the island. From here you can look directly over 120,000 m<sup>2</sup> of vineyards as well as numerous fruit trees. In a meticulously laid out ambience, this holiday home invites you to relax at great length and in the most pleasant of ways. Spacious terraced areas, laid out on different levels and partly covered, offer a multitude of possibilities, and comfy seating furniture ensure your time spent outdoors will be thoroughly relaxing and enjoyable. Picturesque little walls, recesses and walkways, in combination with Mediterranean vegetation and lush green lawns, do an excellent job of complimenting the luxurious scene on show. One particularly fantastic highlight is the indoor BBQ area: here you can prepare and savour hearty Mediterranean delicacies on the electric grill whenever you feel like it. For those who would rather BBQ outdoors: not a problem either, in the outdoor area you'll find a second (gas) BBQ waiting for you. During the day you can indulge in a sumptuous spot of relaxation by the pool, whose dimensions and proportions are really quite considerable and which provides you with the chance to wonderfully cool off on warm days. Adorned with decorative mosaic stone tiles, the pool can comfortably be accessed via a wide set of steps and varies in depth between 1.00 m and 1.50 m. On the surrounding lawned and stone surfaces, any and all sun-lovers amongst you will find modern loungers that are ideally suited to chilling under the beautiful blue Mediterranean sky. From here you also benefit from marvellous views of the surrounding area. You can enjoy these views with the feeling of complete and utter privacy. Those looking for something a little bit more exciting can enjoy a game of ping-pong in the meantime. There is space for two hire cars in the garage. The interior of the house is sure to delight guests just as much as its exterior. Large rooms, which are linked together by extravagant curved arches, are sure to shape your first impression. On closer inspection, the luxuriousness of the facilities and furnishings that we are dealing with quickly becomes clear. High-quality furniture, some of which are antiques, define the living and seating areas, in all of which you can sit and stay whilst surrounded by an entirely elegant ambience. Here you will find salon-like little corners as well as an enormous dining table, at which your entire travelling group, no matter how big, can dine indoors together. Up-market decor provides an extra bit of magic to the diverse spaces. The successful combination of modern and classic elements gives this house an entirely unique and encapsulating atmosphere, in which everyone is sure to want to while away their time the moment they experience this ambience first-hand. The particular spaciousness, which was a priority in the design of the living space, serves to underscore the welcoming effect. The living room area itself is furnished with three exceedingly comfy sofas, which are excellent for relaxing on, no matter the time of day. The fireplace (with wood provided, already included in the price!) and television can both, when called upon, deliver additional charm and entertainment. The kitchen, which has also been laid out in an open-plan style, will delight you with its super-modern design and premium furnishings and fittings. Here you will find everything you could possibly need to cater to your daily needs, including a kettle and Nespresso machine. The bedrooms are, each in their own way, small oases of luxury with entirely individual and pleasantly aesthetic touches. The attractive selection of fabrics and colours makes as much of an impression as the hand-picked furniture and the unique decorative pieces that have been tastefully chosen and positioned. The bathrooms, almost all of which are en-suite, are all competing with each other in the most pleasant way regarding which one is the best, and they leave nothing to be desired when it comes to comfort. They feature high quality fittings that combine effortlessly with an incredibly modern and extravagant style. It goes without saying that irons and hairdryers are provided, meaning you don't have to waste luggage space by bringing your own from home. As a special extra, the owner of the property offers guests a shopping service. For a fee, any groceries you would like will be collected and delivered to your villa just before your arrival and will be awaiting you when you get there. So you can begin your holiday in an easy and comfortable manner from the moment you arrive! Thanks to its favourable location on the eastern part of the island, the villa offers a myriad of varied options for excursions and activities to fulfil any wish. A farmers' market, for example, is held in Manacor every Monday and is definitely worth a visit, offering you the chance to purchase fresh local delicacies. You can find a couple of unspoilt beaches nearby, which are still well-kept secrets for those in the know. Porto Cristo is around 11 km away, offering a lovely beach with shallow access into the sea. Here, you will also find a very pretty

We were in the Finca Can Corem in October and spent some wonderful days there! Very nice greeting, since we arrived late on Sundays, the first shopping had already been done for us - that was very sweet. The finca has a great location - was easy to find and extremely clean and well maintained. The Finca is definitely recommended! We'd love to come back!

We were already for the 2nd time in the Finca, was again a dream, we were there with 12 people and felt not at all constricted, pool and everything else were perfect, all in all a very beautiful Finca with everything you need, a great praise to the landlord Pedro, we come again!
