Location of the Rural Villa in Mallorca

The hospitable, newly-built villa "Na Creu Vella" is located in the heart of a holm oak forest, in an totally rural idyllic setting to the west of the medieval small town of Artà. This is where you can do your daily shopping in small supermarkets or versatile fresh food markets. If you want to go to the beach, we recommend the lively Cala Ratjada, which is a stone's throw away, or visit one of the beautiful bays in the east of the island, such as the natural beach Cala Mesquida.

Detailed description

Welcome to the friendly retreat of the villa "Na Creu Vella". Here you can find absolute peace and rural idyll, as the terracotta-coloured, newly-built house is surrounded by a natural garden and located in the heart of a large holm oak forest – absolutely secluded freestanding, with only a few neighbours (a horse stable is not far away). So you can enjoy the pool in complete privacy and then rest on the sun terrace on one of the comfortable sunbeds with soft cushions. Spend a pleasant afternoon with a board game on your sun loungers by the pool, which can be shaded with an umbrella, if needed. The hospitable house with the sky-blue window shutters offers a cool seating spot in the covered terrace area. Extra-light drapes have been mounted here so that you can sit and eat in the shade whatever the angle of the sun. In addition to a high-quality dining table set and a mobile grill, there is a wide, hanging hammock, in which you can relax with a gentle sea breeze caressing your skin, and enjoy the easygoing lightness of your holiday fully. The veranda leads to the interior area of this pretty villa. Here a pleasantly large room with a wonderful ceiling height and numerous windows is waiting for you. All three functional areas awaiting you for a relaxing holiday in the villa are kept open: living in front of a rustic fireplace on a cosy lava red couch, dining at a long table with comfortable wooden chairs and cooking in a very chic American-style design kitchen. In the fully equipped kitchen, which is inspiring and absolutely ideal for cooking together with children or friends, everything is at hand. This area will become a meeting place for all your mornings at the villa, where you can plan the day over a freshly brewed cup of coffee. The two bedrooms are spacious and offer ample storage space for your holiday wardrobe. One of them has a large double bed, while the second one with two single beds is ideal for children. Here the bathroom is shared, which its modern high-quality furnishing takes into account. It's tiled with a terracotta-coloured natural stone and the walk-in shower area is decorated with a delicate mosaic made of the same material. In these well-kept surroundings you can just feel comfortable and find peace, especially if you appreciate the proximity of nature. Our aerial photographs prove the excellent location of the villa "Na Creu Vella", as in the background you can see the medieval town of Artà only 2.5 km away, and the gentle hills of the Llevant mountains. Here, in the middle of a private woodland and at the same time close to the town, you can enjoy the wonderful rural tranquility. Artà offers a picturesque pedestrian zone with individual shops where you can stroll, saunter, and have a coffee at Plaça del Conquerodor. Here a typical Mallorcan weekly market with fruit, vegetables, crafts, chickens and more takes place every Tuesday. Watching the hustle and bustle while enjoying a delicious ice cream or a cool drink is part of the cheerful holiday mood. You can also enjoy life on the beach, as the beaches of the east, such as Cala Bona or Cala Agulla, as well as Son Serra de Marina in the Bay of Alcúdia can be reached comfortably by hire car. We were very warmly received at the meeting point by the landlady. After a five minute drive from Artá we arrived at the finca which is beautifully and quietly situated. The equipment was more than sufficient, from the smallest plate to bedclothes, towels, cooking utensils, books, etc. The outdoor area was very well maintained which the husband of the landlady took over. He came after announcement in the six days that we were on site once to clean the pool and look after the right because of the heavy rainfall we had in the time. Shortly around we felt there very well and will probably make there again holidays

Na Creu Vella is a beautiful complex in quiet surroundings.

A very nice small mallorquin finca, perfect for 2 persons. Everything is very well maintained and the equipment is good. The contact to the landlords/house administration was very friendly, however, various work was done on the property on several days during our stay, which has disturbed the privacy nevertheless somewhat. All in all, however, a beautiful holiday which we like to think back to.
